

Abstract

Masking means (1) for masking of a longitudinally extended edge area 5 of a vehicle body or an appliance housing during a coating process, in particular a painting or preservation process, with the arrangement of a longitudinally continuous cavity and slot (3) of the outer contour leading into it, whose boundary areas are elastically pre-tensioned to each other.

10

(Fig. 1A)